NYSED Data Privacy and Security Updates

Lessons learned from the MOVEit Breaches

Within a short period of time, customers of the file transfer application MOVEit faced three distinct zero day vulnerability attacks. Each of these attacks exploited an unknown vulnerability in the MOVEit application. Check the file transfers frequently and when files are available move them from the application as soon as possible. If there are no files stored in the application, there is no data to obtain.

Update on New York's Student Data Privacy Consortium (SDPC) Membership

As many of you know, New York is moving toward SDPC/A4I membership and working with

The Educational Cooperative \(TEC\) Student Data Privacy Alliance to serve as our gatekeeper to that service. Currently the focus is on finalizing New York's NDPA to the National Data Privacy Agreement specific laws and needs, in addition to the NDPA. As you can imagine, given the complexities of Education Law
