Key Information Regarding Impartial Hearings

f

Requirements Regarding Resolution Sessions f State regulations require that parent-requested due process impartial hearings include a resolution period where the parties try to resolve the complaint before moving to an actual impartial hearing. Within 15 days of receiving a due process complaint notice from the parent, the school district must convene a resolution meeting.

f This resolution meeting between the parent and district must occur during the 30-day resolution period unless waived by both parties in writing or they agree to use mediation to resolve the dispute.

*f*The resolution meeting must include the parents and the relevant members of the committee on special education (CSE) or committee on preschool special education (CPSE), as determined by the school district and the parent, who have specific knowledge of the facts in the complaint.

*f*The resolution meeting must also include a representative of the school district who has decision-making authority.

*f*A school district's attorney may not participate in the resolution meeting unless the parent is accompanied by an attorney.

Resolution Period Data Collection

*f*While some districts do report the number of resolution sessions/meetings requested and/or held, the New York State Education Department does not currently require that districts report this information.

*f*Currently, some settlement agreements occur after the resolution period has ended and as a result, these settlement
