Directions for Administering Regents Examinations June and August 2022 Administration s

INTRODUCTION

All proctors who will be administering Regents Examinations must be given a copy of this booklet several days in advance of the Regents Examination period so that they have sufficient time to familiarize themselves with its contents. Additional information concerning New York State's secondary-level assessment programs can be found in the School Administrator's Manual, which is available on the Department's website (<http://www.nysed.gov/common/nysed/files/programs/state-assessment/high-school-administrators-manual-2019.pdf>).

Schools must ensure that each student has the appropriate type o alternative language edition of the test simultaneously. However, they should be instructed to record all of their responses in only one of the two editions. The alternative language edition used by the student should be so indicated on the student's answer sheet.

- x Oral Translation for Lower Incidence Languages. Schools may provide ELLs with an oral translation of a Regents Examination when there is no translated edition provided by the Department. This accommodation is permitted for State examinations in all subjects except English. All translations must be oral, direct translations of the English editions. Written translations are not allowed. No clarifications or explanations may be provided. Translators should 9()s shoul h

If the students' responses for the multiple-choice questions are being hand scored prior to being scanned, the scorer must be careful not to make any marks on the front of the answer sheet except to record the scores in the spaces provided for that purpose. Marks elsewhere on the front of the answer sheet will interfere with the accuracy of the scanning.

Questions about the requirement to scan Regents Examinations should be directed to OSA at 518-474-5900. Questions about data collection and reporting services should be directed to the school's regional data center contact or the Office of Information and Reporting Services (IRS) at 518-474-7965.

Time Regulations

The examination schedules and the examinations themselves indicate the specific hours during which Regents Examinations must be administered. June examinations are scheduled for 9:15 a.m. or for 1:15 p.m. August examinations are scheduled for 8:30 a.m. or for 12:30 p.m. To

For Principals and Proctors:

- a. Any student observed with any prohibited device while taking a State examination must be directed to turn it over to the proctor or monitor immediately. To allow for all possible outcomes of procedural due process, the student should be allowed to complete the examination. The incident must be reported promptly to the school principal. If the principal determines that the student had a prohibited device in their possession during the test administration, the student's test must be invalidated. No score may be calculated for that student.

booklet. When all students seem to understand these directions, instruct them to begin the examination.

Students should use black or dark blue ink to write their answers to the essay questions and the short-answer (scaffold) questions. Students may use scrap paper, provided by the school, for planning essays. Students must put their names on their scrap paper.

Conclude each examination exactly three hours after the actual starting time. Instruct any students who remain in the testing room at the end of this time to stop working, close their examination booklets, sign the declaration, and put their pens and pencils down. Collect the answer sheets, the essay booklets, the examination booklets, and scrap paper and dismiss the students.

The Information Booklet for Scoring the Regents Examination in United States History and Government (Framework) provides information about the scoring of these examinations and are available on the Department's website.

Living Environment

Distribute one answer sheet and one examination booklet, face up, to each student.

Before allowing students to be

Have the students fill in the heading on the answer sheet and answer booklet. Instruct the students to carefully read the directions for recording their answers. Make sure that students understand that they are to record their answers to the multiple-choice questions in Part A and Part B-1 on the answer sheet and to record their answers to the constructed-response questions in Part B-2 and Part C in the answer booklet. Students should write all their work in the answer booklet in pen except for graphs and drawings, which should be done in pencil. Students may use scrap paper to work out their answers to the questions, but they must record all answers on the answer sheet and in the answer booklet. When all students seem to understand the directions for marking their answers, instruct them to begin the examination.

and regulations for scoring the examinations. The principal or collaborative site scoring leader must also sign this certificate to attest that the rules and regulations for scoring were fully and faithfully observed.

Principals and other administrative staff in a school or district do not have the authority to set aside the scores arrived at by the teacher scoring committee and rescore student examination papers or to change any scores assigned through the procedures described in this document, the School Administrator's Manual, and in the scoring materials provided by the Department. Any principal or administrator found to have done so, except in the circumstances described below, will be in violation of Department policy regarding the scoring of State examinations. Teachers and administrators who violate Department policy with respect to scoring State examinations may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with Sections 3020 and 3020-a of Education Law or to action against their certification pursuant to Part 83 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education.

On rare occasions, an administrator may learn that an error occurred in the calculation of a final score for a student or in recording students' scores in their permanent records. For example, the final score may have been based on an incorrect summing of the student's raw scores for parts of the test or from a misreading of the convers
